The experience is a constant feeling of sheer gratitude for the opportunity to follow a world class LLM while the whole world is in crisis. This made me more resilient to the difficulties I faced this year.

I am thankful that the FCDO and BHC for not giving up on the Chevening Scholarship programme in the face of a global pandemic. They made the impossible possible by bringing thousands of scholars like myself to the UK and assisting us to grow as individuals amidst an international crisis.

I was really lucky to have a splendid Chevening journey which was filled with a bunch of amazing experiences and memories. I would like to humbly recall that my journey was decorated with some proud Sri Lankan moments as I was awarded Chevening Volunteer Award in Bronze category, Volunteer Award-Edinburgh University Student Association and Edinburgh Award for Professional Development.

With no hesitation, I can recommend Chevening Scholarship to anyone who is seeking for that life changing opportunity which can take his/her academic and professional life to the next level.

I can say today that I am firmly established in my path to make the intended change in the education sector in Sri Lanka, all thanks to Chevening.

Exploring the hidden beauty and marvel of the UK was the best out of my Chevening journey. Snow-capped highlands of Scotland, lovely river valleys in England, sea voyage sagas in Northern Ireland! Chevening Scholarship is the reward of a lifetime for young leaders who walk out of their comfort zones!

I am grateful to the lifelong friends I've made, the connections I've been able to establish with leading scholars in my field as well as the emerging leaders of our generation. I'm grateful for the rare Sunny day (all the stereotypes of English weather are real!) and the many many libraries and history that I was able to experience here in Oxford. It's been the best dream to come true.

One of the best things during this pandemic has been getting the Chevening Scholarship and being able to study at the University of Sussex. I may be biased, but Brighton is THE best place to live in the UK: it's friendly, sunny, has a great vibe, and the most amazing community you could wish for. Good luck to everyone applying - you won't regret it!

I achieved the task of becoming a Chevening scholar after three attempts. In my first attempt, I was not called for the interview. In other two attempts, I was given reserve placements. I never gave up my aim to be a Chevening scholar. I tried once again. I secured a placement in my fourth attempt. Never give up your efforts. You will succeed one day.
